Kawachinagano is located a quick 30 minutes from the center of Osaka by train.

This region was wealthy and prosperous in the middle ages.

With Buddhist culture flourishing around

Kongo-ji and Kanshin-ji temples,

the area also served as a critical hub of trade,

with many people coming and going,

and was a political center with a temporary residence

for imperial visits...

Kawachinagano is to this day overflowing with cultural heritage and historic sites that embody that history.

A town that will allow you to travel back in time to the middle ages.

A town that will amaze and delight you the more you walk through it.

Guaranteed to make a satisfying vacation!
