

Hotspots That You Can't Afford to Miss!

At Kawachinagano you can not only enjoy the wonderful sites but experience many hands-on activities, eat delicious food and encounter a variety of wonderful flora and natural scenery! Allow us to introduce to you the popular spots where you can enjoy Kawachinagano in all of its variety.

Kawachinagano City Furusato Historical Museum

This museum houses exhibits that explain the customs and archeological materials from the ancient past right up to the modern period. There are also all sorts of activities that will allow you to directly experience, hands-on, man aspects of ancient Japanese culture. The "comma-shaped magatama jewels", popular as an Asian-style accessory, and "cotton and dyed cloth necklaces" come highly recommended.

The comfortable workshop with the fresh, open scent of trees. You can make a cute "kitty bank" like this one!

Kinkonkan

Around 70% of Kawachinagano's land area is covered by forests. This facility is meant to convey the importance of wood resources, and present a way of life that is in harmony with the trees. The workshops held here that allow anyone to experience carpentry are especially popular!
