

My trip to Nagasaki was a memorable experience. I stayed at a guest house where I enjoyed delicious, luxurious meals for breakfast and dinner. While the historical bomb sites were a somber and moving reminder of the city`s past , I also had a good time visiting Kamishima. Overall it was a great visit

I went on a school trip to Nagasaki. I went Dazaifu Tenmangu shrine. It was exciting. I ate icecream. It looked like pudding. It was so yummy. I bought a fan and amulet with members of the group. It was so much fun. Next we went to Ebisen store. We bought a lot of Ebisen. But it was expensive. We spent almost all our money.I was very sad but it became a good memory. I also went to the Montblack store. The Mont Blanc there was very delicious.I went to go again. I had a good time.

"My favorite memory of junior high school was a Two-days field trip to Lake Biwa. We went there when we are a second-year student. When I went there, I got in a kayak with my friends. It was scary but very fun. And I cooked curry with my group members. It was very delicious and fun. So Two-days field trip to Lake Biwa is my favorite memory of junior high school."

My best memory of my junior high school life is third grade's sports day. Because I won for the first time. That is thanks to the leaders. Every day they worked hard. In practice, I could know each person's goodness. Now I became able to talk with many people. And I didn't like to dance, but through sports day I can think to dance is so fun with our team. I thought everyone including myself wanted to do hard and enjoyed sports day.

My best memory from junior high was our school trip to Hiroshima and Yamaguchi. We visited the Atomic Bomb Dome in Hiroshima, learned about the horrors of war. We ate delicious food at Miyajima, and enjoyed a home-stay experience in Yamaguchi. The most fun thing was walking in Miyajima. There were a lot of deer. They were very cute. They ate the bags my classmates had. It was Kenta's. So we were fun. He was sad. It was a good memory for me.

"My school trip was fun. My best memory for my three years of junior high school was the school trip. Miyajima was the most fun for three days. I bought a see lion doll at Miyajima Aquarium. I will treasure it for the rest of my life. We went to Itsukushima Shrine. I was so excited to think that great people once lived here. I ate momiji manju. It was fluffy and delicious. We also stayed at a private lodging in Hiroshima. The grandfather at homestay still sends me letters, and I'm thankful to him. It was fun three days."

"School Trip to Hiroshima

I think that school trip is the best memory of my life. I have three reasons. The first reason is that the man who I visited was fun. He explained the history of Hiroshima. The second reason is that the foods which I ate there was yummy. The food made me very happy. The third reason is that the aquarium which were built there had many kinds of beautiful fish. When I saw such fish, I was very excited. For these reasons that I explained above, the school trip to Hiroshima is the memory which I was happy . I want to go to Hiroshima again."

We went to Hiroshima and Miyajima on a school trip. We also went to see the Atomic Bomb Dome. We learned about old Japan. We went to the aquarium. There were all kinds of fish, penguins, sea lions, and otters. We toured Miyajima and bought lots of souvenirs for my family. We stayed at a private lodging. We helped out the family and went to pick wild vegetables. We ate tempura and sukiyaki. The sleep was very comfortable. It was a very enjoyable school trip.

"My Favorite Memory

Let me tell you about my favorite memory of junior high school. My favorite memory of junior high school was Work Experience. The place that I went for my Work Experience was Seikyo Gakuen Kindergarten. There were a lot of children there. I like children, but they have more stamina than me, and when I played Onigokko with them, I felt old. However, I was encouraged by their smiles. On the last day, they told me they were sad to see me go and I was very touched. This memory will be good for them and me. I will never forget their smiles and this experience. M.U"

"These three years were meaningful .I learned a lot in junior high school. My favorite memory of junior high school was track and field club. At first, I didn't know how to run. In the end, I learned the importance of teamwork. It was fun and difficult! I practiced hard everyday with my friends. I have never had such an experience! This experience is important for me. I want to use this experience in high school and jointhe track and field club or another sport club.TU"

"My Favorite Memory

I learned a lot in junior high school. My Favorite Memory of junior high school was the school trip to Hiroshima for three days. The time I spent there were meaningful because I learned a lot about Hiroshima peace. The memorial park was the most meaningful to me. Because I learned about the importance of world peace. It was fun and exciting. The experience of Hiroshima shows that war is a terrible thing. I learned the importance of world peace. I will never forget the peace Memorial.K.E"

"These three years were so special. I had a great time in junior high school with my classmates. My favorite memory of junior high school was the school trip in Hiroshima. First of all, I did not know what peace was. In the end, I could understand peace is very important. It was exciting but a little difficult. I have never had such an experience. I hope everyone becomes peace everyday. I learned peace is important. I will never forget the peace memorial park .

"My favorite memory is the school trip. I have three reasons. First, it is recreation. We were dancing and watching picture-story. Everyone worked hard. I had a great time. Second, I went to a private lodging. The people there were very kind. We saw fireflies. They are so beautiful. The Kawara soba and curry we all made were delicious. Lastly, I went to Miyajima. I visited Itsukushima Shrine and bought a charm. I ate Age Momiji Manju and meat-wrapped rice balls and so on. Everything was very delicious. So, my favorite memory is a school trip."

"I have great memories of my Middle School, especially the School trip. I have two reasons. First, I enjoyed the night recreation on the first day. I danced with my classmates there. Also I watched the other team`s dance. Everyone was very well. It was so much fun I lost track of time. Second, I learned about the Atomic bomb in Hiroshima. I saw the pictures and materials about it there. I thought we should never wage war again. Of course there are other reasons, but for these reasons I think the School trip is the best of all memories."

" My best memory is my school trip. Because it was our last night staying together. There were three things that made me especially happy during that school trip. The first thing was meeting my favorite comedian in Hiroshima. There name is Sandwich Man. The second thing was the positive response to the recreation committee we ran. The homeroom teacher, Mr. Nishino, prepared fireworks just for us and set them off. I was so happy and deeply moved. The third after the fireworks ended, a tragedy occurred. It was that my friend lost the prize from the lottery. It was so sad. But I'm glad it was fun. If possible, I'd like to go again."

My best memory in junior high school is a school trip. I visited Yamaguchi and Hiroshima in May. I had to stay at other family's house. At first I didn't think it was fun. I made pizza with my friends and other family. We made original pizza. It was very delicious. After that we played table tennis, card game and balance game. I think table tennis is the best game. my friends won many games. It became a good memory. I had a very good time.

My best memory of my school life is the sports day. I have two reasons. The first reason is dance performance. I became the support leader of the dance performance. At first, it was difficult for me to create many dances. But other support leaders and I could complete the dance when we cooperated with each other. Also, it was hard for us to teach it to other students. However, thanks to the cooperation of the students, I was able to teach well. The second reason is relay. It was difficult for me to connect the baton. But when I kept practicing, I could connect baton smoothly. As a result, We could enjoy our sports day and succeed our dance performance.

A fun School Trip

My best memory of my three years of junior high school was my school trip. On the first day, we went to the Hiroshima Museum. I learned a lot about Hiroshima's history. There was a beautiful view from the window of the hotel room. On the second day, we went to Miyajima in Hiroshima. There were deer on Miyajima. Miyajima, I ate the popular momiji manju with my friends. On the last day, I had fun to meet so many cute animals. I drank cow's milk. The ice cream was delicious!! Three days was short, but it became a wonderful memory for me."

Sports Day Memory

I think that the most interesting event was sports day.

Because the most interesting even during junior high school is the sports day. First, I was second in ball carrying and I was second in ball toss. Next, this competition in 3rd year junior high school student plays relay is the most interesting. Similarly, I also came in second place in many other competitions. But, Our class lost in sports day. But, We could get the banner award. I could enjoy supporting with classmate.

Sports Day

The last sports day was fun. I practiced a lot leading up to the day. I became a cheerleader and taught them dance. I was happy that we all worked hard and won. I have developed strong relationships with people regardless of grade level. After it was over, I was exhausted from moving around so much. It became a good memory.

My favorite Memory

These three years were meaningful. I learned a lot in junior high school. My favorite memory of junior high school was Sports day. At first, many friends supported everyone. I thought it was important to cooperate with everyone. Also, I think this sports day made our friendships in this class much stronger. My favorite memory of junior high school is the school trip. It was very fun. I have been to Hiroshima in June. In Hiroshima city I ate okonomiyaki. It was delicious. But I like Osaka Okonomiyaki better than Hiroshima Okonomiyaki. I visited Hiroshima Peace Memorial Park. I saw many pictures of the scene of the atomic bombing. It made me sad. I wish for a world without war. This is my favorite memory. I want to go to Hiroshima again.

My favorite memory is a school trip to Hiroshima and Yamaguchi. I have a few reasons. First, I studied many things about peace in Hiroshima. I went to Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum. When I saw a lot of pictures and exhibits, I was very sad. Because they were more serious than I imagined. I have never forgotten about it. Second, I stayed at private lodging for the first time. I had lunch in the mountain, went to fishing, took a drum can bath and so on. I had many valuable times with owner and my friends. So my favorite memory is the school trip.

I went on a school trip to Nagasaki. I bought Castella there. I ate Kakuniman. It was so delicious. I also went to Nagasaki in Aoshima. I Enjoyed boat fishing. I only caught one fish but it was fun. I ate Saraudon and Sashimi. It was delicious. Three days, the it was time to leave Aoshima. That made me sad.
